

THINK GREEN!

Rangeley Public Library

MARCH 2017 NEWSLETTER

Dear Patron,

March is here! The green month! St. Patrick's Day, followed by the first day of spring. We may have a tough time seeing any green outside right now, but the potential for fresh green growth is down there under that white stuff just waiting to pop up! I am SO ready to see green that I may check if it is in the library's budget to cover the snow banks with astro turf! When I was teaching kindergarten, we always had one week in March with the theme of "Beating the Winter Blues". That week, we would have a different crazy theme each day. One day would be beach day, and the kids would come in shorts, sunglasses, etc. Near the end of a long winter, many of us fantasize about warmer, sunnier, and greener days to come. Right now, I invite you to come to the library and find a "beach read" that you missed last summer, take it home, turn up the heat, put on your Hawaiian shirt and flip flops, and read until you get into a storytelling trance where you will be transported to a warm summer day, if only in your mind! That's the magic of books. They have the power to take us to all kinds of fun and interesting places. Where will you go next?
