JULY 2019 NEWSLETTER

Summer Reading Program 2019 starts July 10th!
Stop by the library to sign up.
Weds. for ages 6-9
Thurs. & Fri. for ages 3-5
10:00 - 11:30 AM

Dear Patron

Summer has finally arrived! I don't know about you, but I wait all year for this wonderful time of year. As in past years, there is much going on at the library over the summer. Look below and mark your calendars now so that you won't miss out on any of the fun and educational programs coming up. And don't forget to sign up at the library so that we will make sure to save a space for you. We hope to see all of our local friends as well as our friends "from away" throughout the summer. Here's to a summer full of learning and adventure!

See you soon,

Janet Wilson, Director
director@rangeleylibrary.org

Cornelia "Fly Rod" Crosby

Wed. July 10, 6:00 PM

Dick Matthews will present the life of Cornelia "Fly Rod" Crosby who lived in Phillips, Maine in the late 1800s, breaking many barriers for women as an angler, hunter, journalist, marketer of the Maine outdoors, early conservationist, and holder of the first Maine Guide badge.

Pam Matthews' book Cornelia "Fly Rod" Crosby: Champion of Maine will be for sale at the library after the program.

STORIES & S'MORES

July 13 | August 10 @ 5 PM

Join us for a NEW summer long series for families with children aged 4-6. Once a month, we will walk the MFM trails, stopping to listen to narrated stories with nature themes.

The walk will conclude at a lean-to on which boasts a fire pit and privy. With a fire going, children and their parents are encouraged to think outside the traditional s'mores and get creative!

Join us for one evening or all three.

Cost: Free, donations welcome.

Participants must register. (We don't want to run out of s'mores!)

To register visit an event Sponsor on Facebook.

Meet the Author! Roger Guay

A Good Man with a Dog

Wed. July 17, 6:00 PM

Roger Guay will discuss his 25-year tenure with the Maine Warden Service. As a K9 handler, his work included searching for lost hikers and hunters, apprehending poachers, and protecting the Maine wilderness.

Copies of Guay's book will be for sale at the library after the program.

CloudLibrary Tutorial Thurs. July 18, 10:30 AM

CloudLibrary provides online access to digital copies of books, audio-books, and other digital assets. All Maine library patrons have access to CloudLibrary for free. If you would like to know more about how to use CloudLibrary, come to this free class offered by Americorps Digital Literacy Instructors John Tarbox and Carolyn Smith.

Northern Stars Planetarium Tuesday, July 23, 10:00 AM, 11:00 AM, 1:00 PM, 2:00 PM

In conjunction with this year's space-themed summer reading program, "A Universe of Stories", Northern Stars Planetarium will come to Rangeley to present some astronomy programs. At 10:00 and 11:00 we will offer "Pictures in the Sky", aimed at preschool and kindergarten children. At 1:00 and 2:00 we will offer "Our Family in the Sky", aimed at kindergarten through second grade students. Space is limited to 25 people per session, so it is very important that you sign up at the library prior to July 23rd. The planetarium will be set up at the Rangeley Lakes Heritage Trust building at 2424 Main Street. We are thankful to RLHT for making their space available to us.

DNA & Genealogy - What Does It All Mean? Wed. July 24, 6:00 PM

Taking a DNA test has become quite popular recently. What test should you take? What do the results mean? How can you use them to connect with family? B.J. Jamieson, the genealogy specialist at the Maine State Library, will help you figure out the answers to these questions.

Mystery Making: How the Stories Get Told Wed. July 31, 6:00 PM

Join Maine mystery writers Richard Cass, Kate Flora, and Maureen Milliken for a fun evening with intense audience participation. Our three writers will build a mystery novel on the fly - or at least plan for one. In the process, you'll learn how writers make the decisions when they craft their books. The process is sure to be hilarious.

Social Media Tutorial Thurs. Aug. 1, 10:30 AM

This class covers social media including Facebook for businesses and individuals, Twitter, etc. Discover the lesser-known details of presenting your business or yourself in a positive and effective way on Facebook, Google, Twitter, etc. Get answers to your questions about using other social media platforms. This free class is presented by John Tarbox and Carolyn Smith, Americorps Digital Literacy instructors and is part of the Maine Digital Inclusion Initiative.
