

Meet the Candidates Night Oct. 24th

Rangeley Public Library

OCTOBER 2018 NEWSLETTER

Dear Patron,

How can it be fall already?! I have to admit that I have a love/hate relationship with fall. I love the beautiful colors of early fall. I love apple picking and the crunching of leaves under my feet as I walk. But I hold it against fall that it ushers in a bleak stretch of short, dark, gray days broken up only by each afternoon's dramatic and glorious orange and purple grand finale over the lake. Then come the long, dark evenings. At least those long hours of darkness allow for plenty of time to get lost in Lynette Eason's newest suspense novel, or maybe to catch up on current thoughts about the state of our nation such as in Greg Lukianoff's new book The Coddling of the American Mind. What books do you like to get lost in during long dark evenings? Stop by the library today for your perfect read.

HELP US GET FUNDS!

Did you remember to vote for Rangeley Public Library to receive a grant from Franklin Savings Bank? You still have until October 15th to nominate your favorite non-profit organization as the charity you would like to see receive an award of anywhere from $1,000 to $10,000. Just drop by Franklin Savings Bank or go to Franklin Savings Bank online to vote. You will need to know the name of the organization (Rangeley Public Library), Address (7 Lake St. Rangeley, ME 04970), Email (director@rangeleylibrary.org), and Phone (207-864-5529). You will also be asked why you are nominating the organization (this is where you tell what you like about the library!). Thanks for taking the time to vote!

Maine Spruce Gum

A Colorful Past and Potential Future

Wednesday Oct. 3, 6:00 PM

Dave Fuller will discuss the fascinating history of Maine spruce gum, the first commercial chewing gum in the United States. Learn about who gathered it, the gum companies, gum boxes, and other uses like medicines, bark canoe sealer, and more!

Candidate Forum

Wednesday Oct. 24, 6-8:00 PM

Candidates for district 17 of the Maine State Senate Jan Collins

(D) and Russell Black (R); and candidates for Maine House of Representatives district 117 Stephanie LeBlanc (D) and Fran Head (R), and district 112 Cynthia Soma-Hernandez (D) and Thomas Skolfield (R) will be at the library to share their views. Anyone wishing to ask a specific question of the candidates is encouraged to drop off a question at the library or send it by email to Janet by October 10th. We will try to include a wide range of questions to the candidates in advance. There will also be an opportunity for individuals to give us a limited number of questions the evening of the forum.
