June 2025 Newsletter

Dear Library Patron,

Let's hope that the month of May is not indicative of what our summer is going to be like. It has rained more than half the days in May and even snowed near the beginning of Memorial Day weekend. I was not here to "enjoy" it (not sorry!), but I have it on good authority that big sloppy wet flakes were falling from the sky and that it even collected on the ground up on Saddleback. Ugh! Sometimes I think I have moved to Alaska.

But, everything is getting beautifully green here, and town is gearing up for another eventful summer. Here at the library, we have lots of fun programs planned, starting with Maine children's author Chris Van Dusen on Wednesday, July 2nd, at 11:00 AM. Although his visit will focus on children, adults are welcome to accompany the children (adult lovers of children's lit may want to adopt a child for the day!). Make sure to sign up in advance since space is limited.

Our summer brochures have just gone into the mail so that you will know all of the interesting things happening at the library this summer. If you do not receive one, make sure to pick up a brochure the next time you are in the library. You won't want to miss a single program!

Hope to see you soon,

Janet Wilson, Director
